Tribute To My Loving Family A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all as "up above".

~Love, "Linda"

In Appreciation Perhaps

Perhaps you sang a lovely song
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Life Reflections

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith”

II Timothy 4:6

With loving hearts, we celebrate the life of Deaconess Linda “Faye” Brock, a woman of strong faith, warmth and grace.

Linda “Faye” Brock was born in Summerfield, North Carolina to the late Ernest Brock, Sr. and Janie Mae Gardner where she was raised and later graduated from Summerfield High School.

At a young age, she began a life grounded in faith which remained a guiding force throughout her journey. In 1967, she moved to Bronx, New York where she spent over 45 years, building a life filled with purpose, family and devotion.

While in New York, Linda was employed with Chase Bank for 25 years in Manhattan, where she dedicated herself faithfully to her work. It was also in Manhattan where she met the love of her life, James Brock. The two were united in marriage on January 9, 2008, beginning a beautiful chapter of love and companionship.

Linda, later relocated to Sumter in 2004, where she continued her walk of faith. In July 2005. She joined St. Matthews Missionary Baptist Church and in 2018, she proudly became ordained as a Deaconess, alongside her husband, Deacon James Brock, a moment she held dearly as one of great honor.

Her love for the Lord was evident in all she did. Linda had a passion for singing and served faithfully as a lead choir member at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church where one of her cherished songs was “His Eye Is On The Sparrow”. She was known for her strong faith, her dedication to church and her joyful spirit.

Linda was an outgoing and loving woman who found great joy in being surrounded by her family. Her beautiful smile, kind heart, and warm presence left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered. She also enjoyed life’s simple pleasures, including time spent at the casinos, creating moments of laughter and fun.

In addition to her parents, Linda was preceded in death by brothers, George Garner, Charles Garner, Alvin Garner, and Calvin Garner; and sisters, Etta Mae Pratt, Nettie Sue Garner, and Rosetta Garner. Those left to cherish her memory are brother, Earnest Garner, Jr., Greensboro, NC; stepdaughters, Kim McCarthy, Albany, NY, Regina Brock, Charlotte, NC; stepsons, William Harrison, Turbeville, SC, Dietrich (Shawanna) Brock, Charlotte, NC; seven grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Linda will be surely missed but never forgotten.

Tribute to “Linda”

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday and days before that, too.

We think of you in silence. We often speak your name.

Now all we have are memories and your pictures in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part.

God has you in His keeping. We have you in our hearts.

-With Love, The Family
