Tribute To My Loving Family My Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for through God the victory's won. Please don't say how good I was, just that I did my best. Just say I tried my best to give, the most I could, not less. Please don't give me wings or halos, for that's for God to do. I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.

Don't give expensive flowers, or talk in soft, hushed tones. Don't be concerned about me now, I'm with God, I've made it home. Don't talk about what could have been, it's over and it's done. Just see to all my family's needs, especially the little ones. When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint. I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so please use all your paint. Not just the brighter, lighter tones, use some grays and darks. In fact, don't put me down on canvas, just paint me in your hearts. Don't just remember good times, but remember too the bad. For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad. But if you must do something, then I have one last request. Forgive me any wrong I've done, and with the love that's left,

Thank God for my soul's resting, thank God for I've been blessed. Thank God for all who loved me...Praise God who loved me best for his grace and mercy.

~Love "Lillie Bell"

She is survived by two daughters, Cheryl Felton (James), Columbus, OH and Iris Durham, Manning, SC; one sister, Joanne Jones, Columbia, SC; fourteen grandchildren; twenty-two great grandchildren; one great granddaughter; best friend of many years, Barbara Baker of New York; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

To Mama, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt and Friend Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away. Her journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one. . .

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of her as living in the hearts of those she touched. . .
For nothing loved is ever lost-and she was loved so much.
