See Yourself When All Is New

(Revelation 21:1-5)

Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.
Think how you'll feel, how it will be,
To live in peace, to be truly free.
No evil one will then prevail;
Rule by our God cannot ever fail.
The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises
will pour out from our heart.

(Chorus)

Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.
No sight we see, so sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.
All has come true, just as he said;
Now over mankind, his tent is spread.
He now shall awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with ev'ry grateful breath.

(Chorus)

“Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honor and praise to you belong.”

In Appreciation

The family of Steward Matthew Hammett sincerely thank everyone for their outpouring of sympathy. While there is no immediate relief to the pain of loss that we feel, it does warm our hearts with gratitude to witness the support that all of our family and friends have offered.

Life Reflections

Steward Matthew “Hambone” Hammett, born July 1, 1958 to the late Matt Hammett and Queenie Nelson Hammett in Summerton, South Carolina. He was preceded in death by two sisters and two granddaughters.

Steward attended the public schools of Summerton, South Carolina where he began his driving career by driving school buses. He drove school buses through school and graduated in 1977 with his high school diploma. After some years of driving school buses, he decided to pursue his career driving commercial vehicles. He drove for many companies including Martin Brothers, Pepsi and Food Lion. Soon after retiring from Food Lion after 13 years, he purchased his first commercial vehicle, a 1990 Kenworth and became an owner operator.

In August 1981, Steward married Lindell Carter where they raised four children together. In August 1987, he dedicated his life to Jehovah and became one of Jehovahs Witnesses. He was a great husband/provider, father and friend. He enjoyed talking and spending time with his family and friends, he had a soft spot for all of his grands. Steward was a zealous servant of Jehovah, he enjoyed his time in the ministry along with other brothers and sisters. He also enjoyed working on his cars and trucks and many other projects. After driving trucks for 48 years, he decided to retire, he still spoke those words of wisdom to many family and friends that touched many lives.

Steward leaves behind his wife of 45 years, Lindell C. Hammett; one son, Curtis L. Doctor, Sr., Jacksonville, FL; three daughters, Christine (Kevin) Peay, Winnsboro, SC, Geraldine (Marquis) Westley and Shayna (Anthony, Sr.) Doughty both of Summerton, SC; thirteen grandchildren; five great grandchildren; three sisters, Maxine (Eugene) Gipson, Pennsauken, NJ, Geneva Conyers, Philadelphia, PA and Betsy Parker, Manning, SC; two brothers, James E. (Cynthia) Hammett, Summerton, SC and Samuel Jones, Manning, SC; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
