Tribute To My family
"I Came Back Home"

I found my way back to His name,
and laid down softly
my hurt and pain.

He opened His arms
it wasn't too late,
His mercy met me
right at the gate.

I gave Him my heart,
He gave me peace

so don't you worry,
I'm alright,
now with Jesus,
at perfect rest,
forever released.

Love, Jethro

Obituary

God called, and Jethro Mouzon answered. He transitioned from this life into eternity—a journey we all must take one day.

Jethro Mouzon was born on December 29, 1951, in Manning, SC, to the late Mr. Alfonza Mouzon, Sr. and the late Mrs. Wilhemena (Fleming) Mouzon.

Jethro was educated in the public schools of Clarendon County and, after graduating, entered the workforce. He was known by many as a dedicated and hardworking man. Throughout his life, he held several roles, including serving as a foreman at Federal Mogul and working as a cashier at the former Moore Food Store across from the TA. He also owned and operated his own lawn service business for many years. However, his career of choice, which he faithfully carried out until retirement, was as a truck driver, where he was affectionately known by many as “Ice Man.”

Shortly after graduating from Manning High School, Jethro was united in holy matrimony to the late Annie Dingle Mouzon. From this union, three children were born: Ruth P. Roberson, Manning, SC, Carolyn C. Mouzon, Sumter, SC and Beverly Mouzon, Manning, SC.

Later in life, he was united in holy matrimony to the late Elizabeth Samuel Mouzon. Together, they worshipped at Greater St. Mark Church in Alcolu, South Carolina, under the leadership of Rev. LaShawn Green.

Jethro’s life journey was filled with many experiences that ultimately led him back to his faith. In 2025, he rededicated his life to the Lord, repented of his sins, and reaccepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior.

Jethro Mouzon peacefully entered eternal rest on Sunday, April 12, 2026, at McLeod Health Clarendon in Manning, South Carolina.

He leaves to cherish his memory a host of loving family members, dear friends, and all who were blessed to know him. His presence brought joy to many, and he will be deeply missed by all.
