

He Will Call

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day. Then disappears tomorrow. All that we are can quickly fade away. Replaced with tears and sorrow. If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command
For he will have a longing. For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder. For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever. As the work of his own hand.

Friends of our God, though they may pass away. Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay. From death he will awaken. Then we'll come to see all that life can be: Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing. For the work of his own hand. So have faith, and do not wonder. For our God can make us stand. And we will live forever. As the work of his own hand.
