To “Inez”

We thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday and
days before that, too.

We think of you in silence.

We often speak your name.

Now all we have are memories
and your pictures in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part.

God has you in His keeping.

We have you in our hearts.

-With Love, The Family

In Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all our friends who have consoled us during the passing of our loved one, Inez “Nell Johnson Montgomery. Your prayers, your love, your presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God’s love, expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts. We thank you very much for all of your help and prayers. May God richly bless you.

Life Reflections

Yes, the Lord's "Ways" are above comprehension and explanation (Isaiah 55:9). Yet, His grace is greater than our grief (2 Corinthians 12:9). When heaviness is on us, God strength is under us waves of sorrow may come but waves of the Lord's presence continue to carry us along.

Inez Johnson Montgomery, the third of three children, born to the late William Johnson and Rosa Johnson was born July 21, 1944 in Manning, South Carolina.

She attended Jordan School in Jordan, South Carolina.

She was a faithful and dedicated member of Fellowship Missionary Baptist Church, Manning, South Carolina.

Inez was employed at Federal Mogul, Summerton, South Carolina where she dedicated many years of service.

She met and married Willie Albert Wilson and this union was blessed with three children. A daughter, Gloria Jean Wilson preceded her in death. After a new life with Willie Montgomery, she moved to Davis Station where she spent the next 17 to 20 years surrounded by her husband family and friends. She and her husband joined Antioch Missionary Baptist Church where she faithfully served as one of the Mothers of the Church.

Inez lived a life full with love and selfless care, creating lasting bonds and cherished memories for all who knew her. She was deeply loved by everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her kind empathetic and guided by a strong sense of faith and integrity. She carried herself with a quiet strength. Her warm and positive spirit brought people together and held her family close with patience, love and unwavering devotion.

She leaves to cherish her memory two loving sons, Willie Edward Wilson and Hector Sylvester Wilson; niece, Phinise Carter, grandchildren, Cory, Brandon, Anastaishia, Jasmine and Brandon, etc; nine great grandchildren; best friend, Nora Benbow; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me, but let me go.
Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
remember the love that we once shared,
miss me - but let me go!
For this is a journey we all must take,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

~Love, "Inez"

Tributes

To Our Mother

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in our Mother's arms
and tell her they're from us.
Tell her we love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
We do it every day,
but there's an ache within our hearts
that will never go away.

~Love, Willie Edward
and Sylvester

God's Angel

How do we say this and where do we start
Everything hurts especially our hearts
It hurts us so much that we can't see you anymore
We wished we got to say our goodbyes
Before you walked in God's door
It makes us feel better
You're an angel in heaven
You're happy and at peace
And one day we will see you again
We miss and love you deeply
And we try not to cry
But we know we'll see you later
So this is not our goodbye.

~Love, Your Grandchildren
