To “Gerald”

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday and days before that, too.
We think of you in silence. We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories and your pictures in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping. We have you in our hearts.

-Love, The Family

In Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, your love, your presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God’s love, expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much. Special thanks to Walmart 1017 Team for your hospitality and wonderful care of Hamilton Gerald Frierson. He loved you all. May God richly bless you.

Life Reflections

Hamilton Gerald Frierson, Jr., known to most as “Gerald” son of Esther Carter Piram and the late Hamilton Frierson, Sr. and bonus son of Daniel Piram was born June 26, 1973 in New York, New York. “Gerald” was preceded in death by his only brother, Dexter L. Carter, grandparents, John and Esther Carter, several aunts and uncles.

“Gerald” was a graduate of Scott’s Branch High School in Summerton, South Carolina.

At an early age, he joined Taw Caw Missionary Baptist Church, Summerton, South Carolina and sang at the eight o’clock Sunday morning service.

He was employed at Triamco for fifteen years and Walmart.

On Thursday, August 6, 2026, “Gerald” departed this life into: “the promise that He hath promised us even eternal life”. 1 John 3:25.

He leaves to cherish his precious memory, a loving mother and father Esther (Daniel) Piram; four aunts: Lindell (late, Stuart) Hammette, Amanda (Joe) Conyers, Mary Ann Carter, Glennie (Levi) Stoudermire; one uncel, John Carter, Jr.; two special cousins, Luis Mangual and Eurdice Mangual; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Tribute To My Loving Family

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me, but let me go.
Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
remember the love that we once shared,
miss me - but let me go!
For this is a journey we all must take,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss Me - But Let Me Go.

~Love, “Gerald”

Tributes

To Our Son

We can’t hear you,
We can’t touch you either,
But we know you’re still here
For we can feel you in our hearts
We can see you in our minds
All the time.
Though you’ve gone far away
We’ll meet you again another day
But until then remember you haven’t died
For in our hearts and in our minds
We know you’re still here,
You’re still here all the time.

~Love Always, Mom and Dad

To Our Nephew

In Memory of You in Heaven

You were the loudest joy that made us laugh and the quietest pain when you were hurting. We will forever smile at the mischief we made, and cry because we can’t call you anymore. You were our laughter, our love, our blood and now our guardian We love you, now and forever. “That was our Gerald”, The Gentle Giant.

~Love, Your Aunts and Uncle

To Our Uncle

All Is Well

She’s going home now, all is well.
If you cry for her, make it tears
of joy and happiness,
She’s at peace now, all is well.
No suffering for her. No pain for her.
No pain, no grief.
We were blessed to have known her,
all is well.

~Love, Your Nieces and Nephews
