To Our Sister

Your time on this world has passed
You have gone to a better place
It was time for you to join the Lord
Who now holds you in His embrace
From His sacred garden He picked you
For it was your time to go.
To us you were still young in heart
And now with us you must part
So from this world you have gone
And now you rest in the Lord's Home.
~ Love, Your Siblings

In Appreciation

The family of the late Shamikia Rochell "Mikia" Lloyd would like to express their sincere appreciation for your cards, phone calls, concern, care, and any kind deeds during the passing of our loved one. Life Reflections

“Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle” Psalms 24

Shamikia Rochell “Mikia” Lloyd was born on August 31, 1980 to the late Handy McFadden, Sr. and Sarah Ann Lloyd, in Charleston, SC. She was preceded in death by one brother, Handy McFadden, Jr. and two sisters, Sarah and Candance McFadden.

She received her formal education through the public schools of Clarendon County and proudly graduated from Manning High School with the Class of 1998. Following high school, Mikia continued her education at Williamsburg Technical College, where she pursued cosmetology.

Known for her outgoing personality and compassionate spirit, Mikia began her professional career in the service industry. She worked as a medical driver for Godwin Transportation in Lake City, where her dedication to helping others was evident. Her experience and natural gift for connecting with people later led her to positions as a customer service representative with Foundever (formerly Sykes) in Kingstree, South Carolina, as well as at Hardee’s in Manning and Clarendon Two School District. She later relocated to Foundever in Sumter, where she remained employed until her health began to decline.

Mikia began her walk with the Lord at a young age at Hickory Grove Baptist Church in Manning. As an adult, she became an integral part of Church of Salvation, where she answered her call as a Psalmist. She served faithfully as a member of the Adoration of Praise (praise and worship team), the Double Portion Praise Dancers, and as director of the Spirit and Truth Choir. Mikia also had a special heart for young women and served as a mentor to many of the young girls in the church, lovingly becoming their honorary Auntie and Big Sister.

Later, Mikia transitioned to Fresh Fire Christian Life Center, where she continued to serve the Lord faithfully. She was a dedicated member of the Fresh Fire Praise Team and served as director of the Fresh Fire Mass Choir.

Mikia’s mission in life was, and always remained, to sing gospel music for the Lord. She was a passionate Psalmist whose voice and presence touched many lives. She also had a special gift for serving as an anointed Mistress of Ceremonies for gospel programs, bringing joy, energy, and warmth to every occasion. Throughout her life, Mikia shared her God-given gift of music as a member of several singing groups, including Blessed, Singing Disciples Choir, The Cousinners, and Highly Favor.

On Tuesday, August 11, 2026 she exchanged her cross for her Heavenly Crown at McLeod Health of Florence, SC.

She is survived by her loving and devoted son, Royale Lyriq Epps of the home; four sisters: Kimberly Fleming of Sumter, SC, Jeanette and Jackie McFadden both of Cades, SC, Gwen(Calvin) Godwin,, PA; three brothers: Stanley (Willa Lee), Chuckie, and Michael McFadden of Cades, SC; one sister-in-law: LaTosha McFadden, a special nephew and special nieces taken as her own: Anthony Levone Lloyd of Trenton, NJ, Shatoya Kendrell and Quineesha Alprecious Fleming both of Sumter, caregivers, Kimberly Fleming and Sheena Pendergrass; four godchildren: Tikera Bradley, Diamond Lloyd, Niera and Kylo Harvin; a cousin born the same day as her that she took as a twin: Cortney Lloyd. many special friends she loved as additional sisters: Marilyn Bradley, Amanda and Irish Dupree, Chastsity Lewis, Jolisa Dozier, Shavonne Rawlinson-Billups, Kendra Pompey and Tikisha “Sweet P” Brown; brothers that she took as her own, Justin Scott and Shawn Godwin; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, cousins, and friends.

“Together Again”

To My Family I Did My Best

I did my best with the life I was given,
To love, to guide, and make a difference each day.
To my son, my family, and all those I loved,
I hope my light helped guide your way.
I wasn't perfect, but my heart was true,
I gave my love and helped whenever I could.
Remember my strength, my smile, and my love,
And know I did my best, the best that I could.
Remember to live as I would want you to,
With love in your heart in all that you do.
~Love, “Mikia”

To My Mama If Roses Grow In Heaven

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Mother’s arms
and tell her they’re from me.
Tell her I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there’s an ache within my heart
that will never go away.
~Love, Your Son, Lyriq
