To Our Loving Mother

You held our hands when we were small,
And guided us through every fall.

Though now you walk a different shore,
Your love remains, and grows much more.

We look for you in morning light,
And feel your grace come with the night.

A quiet whisper in the breeze,

A gentle peace among the trees.

Sweet angels, take this message high,

And bear it upward through the sky:

Tell her we miss her every day,

And love her more than words can say.

- Forever and ever, Your Children,

Juicy, Tasha, and Shenay

In Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, your love, your presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God’s love, expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much. May God richly bless you.

Life Reflections

Neomia Oliver Turner departed this life on August 31, 2026, at her residence in Summerton, South Carolina. She was born on October 23, 1953, in Manning, South Carolina to the late Robert and Lue Ida Ragin Oliver.

She was educated in the Clarendon County School System and graduated from Scott's Branch High School in 1971. After graduation, Neomia moved to New York City, where she worked in healthcare in the Bronx as a home attendant in the Grand Concourse Village area. While living in New York, she met and fell in love with Robert Turner, her husband of 31 years, and together they started a family.

After returning home to South Carolina in 1999, she began working for the Clarendon County Disability and Special Needs Board as a Health Care Aide. Through her dedication and hard work, she advanced to the position of House Supervisor, where she remained until her retirement. Following retirement, Neomia devoted her time to caring for her mother, Lue Ida, until her passing in 2024.

Neomia was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. Her life was centered around family, and she leaves behind generations who will continue to carry her memory, love, and legacy with them.

Throughout her life, Neomia was known for her kindness, love, strength, and faith. She enjoyed crocheting, baking pies, spending time with loved ones, and watching good movies. Those who knew her will especially remember the way she loved and cared for others. Neomia was also a foster parent for many years, providing a loving and caring home for children in need.

Neomia was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Turner; her parents, Robert and Lue Ida Ragin Oliver; and her siblings, Joanne, Eddie, Richard, and Jerome Oliver.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Robert Turner (Tiffany) of North Las Vegas, NV, Latisha McCoy (Chris) of Sumter, SC and Shenay Dennis (Benjamin) of Ridgeland, SC; grandchildren, Tavian Turner, Tyshawn Robinson, Kyriek Kelly, Quantavain Kelly, Yasmine Anderson, Isabella Turner, Mekhi Dennis, and one expected granddaughter; six great-grandchildren; and generations of family who will continue to carry her love forward; siblings, Joseph (Shirley) of Davis Station, SC, Robert (Paula) of Atlanta, GA, Deborah (Michael) of Florence, SC, Ida Mae of Lithonia, GA and Amanda of Manning, SC; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and friends.

Neomia's life will be remembered not only through the moments, memories, and milestones she leaves behind, but through the people she loved, the family she built, and the legacy that will continue through generations.

To My Loving Family

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one,

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering
softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

- With All My Love, "Neomia"
