To "Kinsey"

We thought of you with love today,
but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday
and days before that, too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories
and your pictures in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake with which we will never part.
God has you in His keeping.
We have you in our hearts.
-With Love, The Family

In Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, your love, your presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love, expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much. May God richly bless you.

Tributes

To Our Son

We can't hear you, we can't touch you either, but we know you're still here. For we can feel you in our hearts. We can see you in our minds all the time. Though you've gone far away, we'll meet you again another day. But until then remember you haven't died. For in our hearts and in our minds. We know you're still here, you're still here all the time.

~Love, Mom and Dad

To Our Brother

If all the world was ours to give, we'd gladly give it now. Just to see your face again would make it all worthwhile. You've been gone a few days, each day we've thought of you and wished with all hearts and souls that you could be here, too. We know that God is all wise and He never makes a mistake But how we wished with all our being that you, He did not take. We'll never understand it all, so go ahead and rest,. We trust in the Lord in all things for He only takes the best.

~Love, Your Sisters and Brother

To Our Nephew

Someday everything will all make perfect sense. So for now, we will laugh at the confusion, smile through the tears and keep reminding ourselves. That everything happens for a reason. We love you and we miss you.

~Love, Your Aunts and Uncles
