To Our Brother

We're going to miss you but we must let you go, we've gone through the hard times, we've shared good times but oh!. Brother dear we're going to miss you. When we wake in the morning, the sun will shine, but we know we'll never see you or hear your voice, nor touch your face, but oh! How we love you! And we're really going to miss you. We are going to cherish you and your memories forever. In our hearts the pain is truly deep, but our "Jesus" has called you to a better place. We know you've met the ones you've longed to see in your favorite home. We didn't want you to go b ut we knew God called you home. You are love and sadly missed.

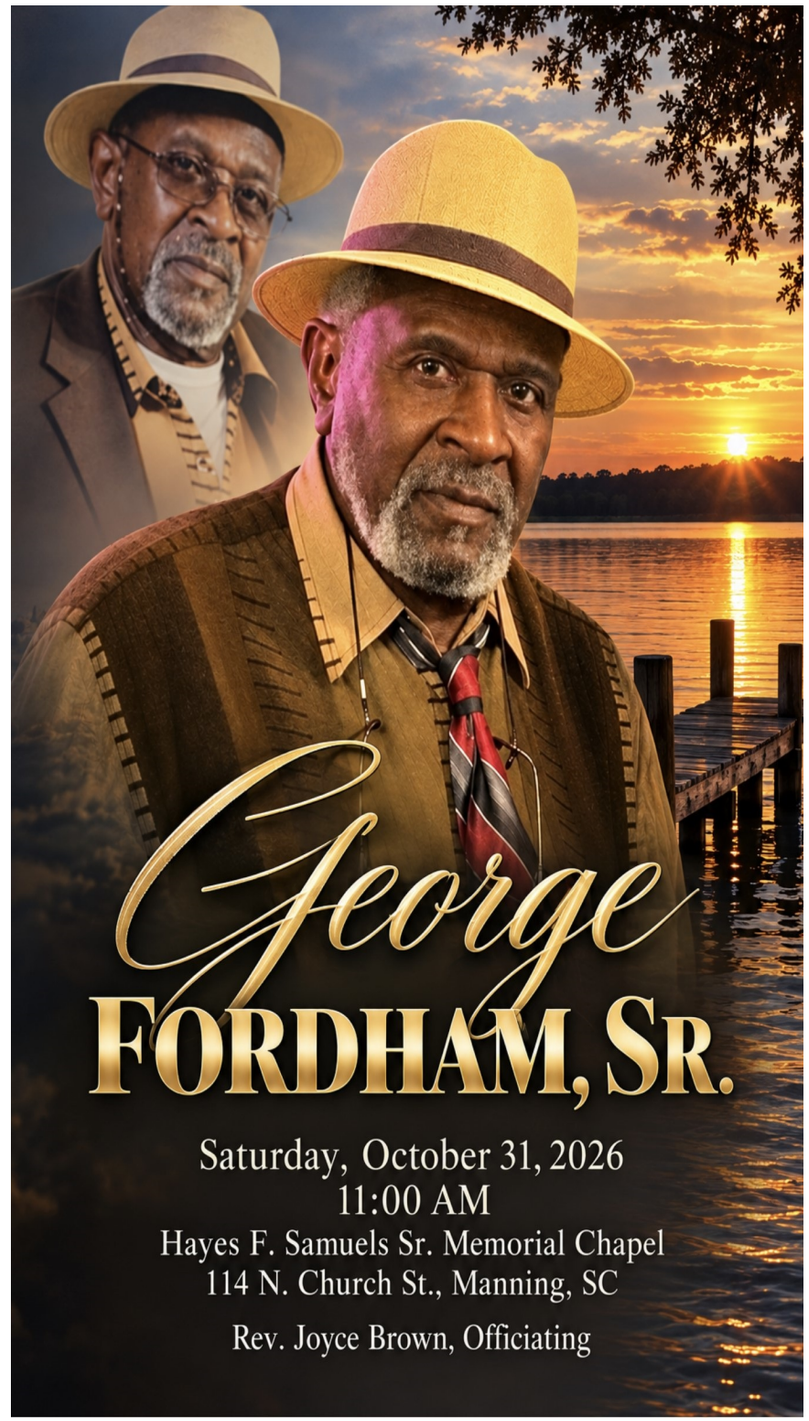

~Love, Your Devoted Sister & Brothers

In Appreciation

Words are inadequate to express the humbleness and gratefulness we feel towards all our friends who have consoled us during our bereavement. Your prayers, your love, your presence and service has sustained us. Your cards, emails, flowers and gifts of food were warmly appreciated. We saw all of these as God's love, expressed through you. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much. May God richly bless you.

Life Reflections

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing."

2 Timothy 4:7-8

Tribute To My Loving Family

It's over now, and I'm alright
My many loved ones who are left behind,
Let God be your guide and it'll be alright.
There's no need for the heartache,
No need for the tears.
You just run the race and live the life
And wait for the Savior to say "Well Done".
When they lay me in the grave,
With my face toward the sky,
Lord, I'll know I've made it,
To my home on high,
And I know I'll be saved
From this world here below,
All my fears, doubts, worries and pains,
They're over and I'm home on high.

~Love, "George"
