LIFE REFLECTIONS

"A Trumpet of the Lord has sound, and Time will be no more, an angel of the Lord sang out Emanuel! It's time to go"...

Emanuel Leon King, Jr., son of the late Reverend Emanuel Leon King, Sr. and Lena Dozier King was born December 23, 1946, in Manning section of Clarendon County. He was the tenth child of twelve siblings.

"Chimmey" as he was affectionately called received his formal education in the public schools of Clarendon County and was a 1965 graduate of Manning Training School.

He proudly served his country in the United States Air Force and the Army National Guard, retiring June 1971. He continued his service to the country as he worked for the United States Postal Service until he retired in 2024.

Chimmey was a lifelong member of Williams Chapel Christian Church. He lived in New Jersey and commuted to New York where he continued working in the church. After returning to South Carolina, he worked in the church as an assistant adult Sunday school teacher and a member of the Trustee Board. Being a dedicated Christian, he worked wherever he was needed.

Chimmey liked the finer things in life and worked hard to get them. He always said, "Look to no man for anything, work and get your own."

He was united in Holy Matrimony with Janette Davis, and they were blessed with Lion, their furry cat.

In addition to his parents, He was preceded in death by one brother, Charles W. King and three sisters, Cora Evans, Lena Monlyn and Hagar King.

Chimmey is survived by his loving and devoted wife, Janette Davis of the home; two brothers, Reverend Damon King of Patterson, New Jersey and Herbert (Edith) King of Manning, SC; five sisters, Addie Montgomery, Sadie (Deacon Melvin) Lampkin, Edith Smalls and Ida Pompey, all of Manning, SC and Rosa Wilson of Florence, SC; a sister-in-law, Ernestine King and Labertha Davis Louis, both of Manning, SC, Yvonne Davis of Columbia, SC and Deloris Monroe of Blythewood, SC, three brothers-in-law, Larry Davis and Leandra (Brenda) Davis, both of Manning, SC, Evans (Willeina) Davis, Jr. of Columbia, SC, a special niece, Yolanda Miller of Manning, SC, A dedicated friend, Peter Rabbit, who was always on call. and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
