

Oh, To Know God's Love

Oh, to know the love of God,
and the peace that it brings is to understand the grace of what a dying Savior brings.

Oh, to know the love of God
that forgives us of our sins is to understand the mercy that flows from deep within.

oh, to know the love of God
and the promise of eternal life is to understand the compassion
it took to end mankind's strife

Oh, to know the love of God
that heals, restores and renews is to understand the promises
flowing through the good news

Oh, to know the love of God
that one cannot earn or buy is to come understand why
Jesus had to die!

NOTE OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the passing of our loved one.
Please continue to keep us in your prayers and may God in His goodness keep you in His tender loving care.

OBITUARY

ORDER OF SERVICE

Raymond Hodge, Jr. was born September 24, 1951, to Raymond Hodge, Sr. and Alberta Kinemore Rogers Hodge in a small town called Brunswick, GA.

He was the oldest of eight children which included three girls: Glenda Williams, Hattie Hill and Margaret Butler and four boys: John Henry Hodge, Nathaniel Hodge, Anthony Greene and James Kinemore. Raymond was a strong and very intelligent man that had a love for building. He went back to school to obtain his GED and took a trade in brick masonry and plastering. Later on, He began his journey of starting his own family.

Two of his children have already received their wings and gone on to Glory: Kimberly King and Joseph Hodge.

He leaves behind four children: Raymond Hodge, Jr. of NC; Khaliaia Taylor of Brunswick, GA, Raymonie Hodge of Orlando, FL and LaTasha Johnson of NC. He leaves a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Raymond Hodge gave his life to the Lord on February 27, 2023, for we knew that he will receive his crown. He was loved by many all over the world and he will truly be missed.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Matthew 5:4
