

He is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone

Or you can smile because he has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back

Or you can open your eyes and see all his life.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him

Or you can be full of the love you share.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday

Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember him only that he is gone

Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back

Or you can do what he'd want

Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

NOTE OF THANKS

We would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness and sympathy shown during the passing of our loved one. Please continue to keep us in your prayers and may God in His goodness keep you in His tender loving care.

APOSTLE DAVID LITTLEJOHN, OFFICIATING

IN LOVING MEMORY OF “ROBERT”

OBITUARY

Mr. Robert Lee Lindsay, Sr., 75, was born on March 19, 1948 in York County, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Theodore Roosevelt Lindsay and Ida Barnett Lindsay. He departed this life to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 13, 2023, at Caromont Regional Medical Center, Gastonia, North Carolina.

Mr. Lindsay was a United States Army Veteran where he served his country from January 10, 1968, until December 22, 1969.

Mr. Lindsay really loved playing his guitar. He also loved to sing and write his own songs. He enjoyed reading and studying different books. He loved fishing and would always make jokes and tell stories, making everyone laugh. He was loved by any for his loving spirit. Even in his last days, he still smiled and told jokes to put a smile on someone else's face.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister: Mary Sander.

He leaves behind to cherish precious memories to his two children: Rachel Lindsay and a son: Robert Lindsay, Jr., three sisters: Josephine Lindsay, Bertha Floyd and Dorothy Lindsay; six grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
