

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of him as living
in the hearts of those he touched...
for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.

Armstrong Cemetery
Gastonia, North Carolina

On Tuesday, Jan 23, 2024, our beloved Frank Miller transitioned peacefully from his early home to rest in peace.

Frank E. Miller was born September 21, 1946, in York County, S.C to the late Mary L. Robbins and Esper Robbins. Leaving an empty space in the hearts and lives of those who knew and loved him. Frank was affectionately known by calling his friends names like white mouth, mush mouth was his saying.

He enjoyed being around family and friends. Frank loved going fishing and playing spades or card games. Most of all, he loved women. He was a ladies' man for sure.

Frank was preceded in death by his parents Mary and Esper Robbins, sister Darnell Miller, and three brothers Larry, Lester and Calvin Robbins, son Horace Littlejohn and grandson Deonta Lindsay.

Precious fond memories of Frank will always be cherished by his four daughters Chinita Sherer (Derek), Nissan Hill, Charissa Johnson, and Tiya Miller; two son, Frank Jr and Jermaine Littlejohn, three sisters Shirley Worthy, Mary E. Robbins, Rose Littlejohn, three brothers Joe, Gilbert, and Kenny Robbins. He had 15 grandkids, 15 great grandkids, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

YOU HAVE LEFT OUR LIVES, BUT YOU WILL NEVER LEAVE OUR HEARTS
