—Interment—

Rose Hill Cemetery Gastonia, North Carolina

Our Hearts will ache with sadness,

And many tears still flow. What it meant
To lose you, no one will ever know.

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain to walk

With us throughout our lives

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

Gaston County mourns the loss of a bright, young soul, Ka'marion Accor, who passed away on February 29, 2024. Born in Gastonia, North Carolina on August 15, 2012, to Ms. Cierra Accor and Mr. Roscoe Hull, Ka'marion's life was a beautiful tapestry of passion, kindness, and youthful exuberance.

Ka'marion's journey, though brief, was marked by an unwavering spirit of kindness and a passion for life. He attended Holbrook Middle School and was a member of the School's Wrestling team.

Ka'marion's heart was full of love for all things Miami Hurricane. His love for sports was also evident on the field as a valued player on the Gastonia Knights football team. His teammates will remember him for his team spirit and determination. His athletic/academic brilliance and inquisitive nature made him a favorite among his teachers and peers. Known for his kind heart, quick wit, and infectious smile, Ka'marion was a beacon of light in the lives of those he touched.

Ka'marion was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Ms. Tammy Accor, his maternal great grandparents Mr. Mason Rainey and Gladys F. Rainey, paternal grandparents Ms. Charlotte Ann Floyd and Mr. Roscoe McCleave.

Ka'marion is survived and deeply missed by his loving parents, Ms. Cierra Accor and Mr. Roscoe Hull, as well as his cousin Zanaa Floyd and best friend London Hughes. He also leaves behind his Aunt Delores Floyd and Uncle James Leroy Floyd, Grandfather Mr. Ray Rainey, his great grandmother, Ms. Carleen Gordon, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Ka'marion's legacy will live on in the hearts of those who knew him. His life, though short, was a testament to the impact one individual can have on their community and the world. Rest in peace, dear Kamarion. Your memory will forever be a source of inspiration and joy to all who knew you.
