

Nan Nan

You taught how to love, You taught us what was Right
You gave us strength, You gave us Might.

You fought for us all, in one way or the other
You were everyone's Nan Nan, and everyone's Mother

Nan Nan was always there, A safe and comforting sight
A sense of warmth, who fed us all and made sure you weren't hungry
When you laid your head down at night.

Nan Nan would always tell you like it is, and had the funniest
Comments and Jokes.

Nan Nan had the best home cooking and you listened when Nan Nan spoke.

We will always remember the amazing stories that Nan Nan told when we were so young.

The thrills and excitements as we anticipated
each word that rolled off her tongue

And though we were stubborn and too foolish at time to care.

Note of Thanks

With deep appreciation we wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for the many expressions of kindness shown during the passing of our beloved Jessie Mae Hall. May God bless each one of you.

In Loving Memory

Miss Jessie Mae Hall passed away on April 18, 2024 peacefully at home. She was a native of Gaston County and the daughter of the late Lee Roy Late and Francis Houser Lowe.

She was a mother and grandmother who loves to cook and go fishing. She likes to go for rides and just look at nature. She took care of everybody no matter who you was she made sure everyone ate and was full. She didn't like to see people go without. If you didn't have the things you need she will make a way for you to get it. Another thing, if you came to her house and showed out, she going to whoop you but it was out of love.

She preceded in death by her husband Leroy Hall and her daughter JoAnne Brooks.

She is survived by her daughter Sylvia Hall (Minister Joseph Adams) of Gastonia, NC. She has two step-children Peggy Stinson (Billy) of Charlotte, NC. Tony Hardin (Peggy) of Georgia; six grandchildren Johnathan Hall (Heather) of Gastonia, NC; Erica Hall of Winston Salem, NC; Natalie Hall of Aden, NC; Steven Love US Navy (retired) of Oostburg, WI; Eslener Love of Greensboro, NC; Jesselener Love of Gastonia NC; 27 great grand-children; 5 great-great grandchildren. She has two special grandchildren Shanna Mackins (Nut) and Michael Smith Sr. both of Gastonia, NC; her fishing buddy and the father of four of her grandchildren Nathaniel Love II; two special friends Azalee Sanders and Martha Fox both of Gastonia, NC; Roger Schimberg was a special friend of the family and a host of nieces and nephews.

No more pain, no more tears. In the arms of Jesus, forever. Rest My Queen! as we will hold you near. So, Jesus we ask you to take this message to our Nan Nan who is in Heaven above. Tell her we miss her so, and give her our Love.
