

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go
For this is a journey that we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Acknowledgement

We wish to express our profound and sincere appreciation for all your acts of kindness shown during the passing of our beloved. It is through your love, prayers, and the grace of God that we find strength and comfort. My God bless and keep you all.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Cramer Miller, Jr., better known as "Junior," was born in Gastonia, North Carolina on January 15, 1942, to the late Cramer and Ruth Miller. He entered eternal rest on Thursday; June 6, 2024, at Novant Health Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Cramer was a 1966 graduate of Lincoln High School in Bessemer City, North Carolina. He was a hardworking man. He worked at Westinghouse Nuclear Plant for fifteen years and retired there. He started his own business, Miller's Cleaning Services. Junior continued with this business for fifteen plus years. He also had his own meat business and owned his own meat truck. He sold meat all over the city. He loved being busy and was a man of many trades.

Cramer was a dedicated and loving father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He loved his family. He always told them about starting the day off right, by honoring and thanking God. He will never be forgotten.

Memories will be forever cherished by his loving life partner: Rosa Monroe Miller, daughters: Whitney Miller, Monica Miller and Keya Jefferson; sons: Darren Miller (Karen) and Charles Monroe; granddaughters: Gabrielle Monroe, Danielle Miller Ashley Miller, Kayleigh Taylor, ; grandsons: Aiden Killingsworth, Nathan Sutton, Doriane Taylor ; great granddaughters: Kylie and Kailyn Sutton; great grandsons, Ashton Miller, Jayden Walter; two brothers: Rev. Niles Miller (Mary) of Gastonia, NC and Rev. Tony Miller of Hampton, GA; one sister, Dorothy Miller of Gastonia, NC; one sister-in-law: Frances Monroe of Gastonia, NC and a host of other relatives and friends.
