

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call from me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar:
When I put out to sea.
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell;
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of time and place the flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

My Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of me as gone away My journey's just begun. Life holds so many facets. This earth is but one Just think of me as resting From the sorrows and the tears In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
