

Forever in Our Hearts

Remembering you...

We hold you close, within our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace Dear Mother,
And thanks for all you've done,
We pray that God has given you,
The crown you've truly won.

Note of Thanks

With deep appreciation and gratitude, we wish to express our sincere thanks to the many families and friends for all expressions of kindness shown during the loss of our loved one. May God bless each and every one of you

Life Reflections

Martha Ann Roseboro Armstrong was born in York County, South Carolina on May 4, 1932 to the late Leroy Roseboro and the late Martha McClee Seigle. She entered eternal rest on Thursday; July 25, 2024 at the home of her son, James Armstrong, in Hampton, Georgia.

She attended Reid High School in Belmont, North Carolina and Cleveland Community College, Shelby, North Carolina, where she earned certification as a certified nursing assistant. She worked in the dry cleaner's industry and the textile industry which included Homelite for many years. She later entered the home health care industry from which she retired. Martha enjoyed jigsaw puzzles, crocheting, working in the yard, especially her flower bed.

She was a member of Tabernacle Baptist Church, Gastonia, North Carolina where she was part of the Golden Senior's Ministry. She loved her church dearly, especially going on church trips and outings.

Martha was preceded in death by her parents: Leroy Roseboro and Martha McClee Seigle; her husband: Lonnie Armstrong, Sr., her daughter: Lucille Thomas; her siblings: Hattie Thompson, Queen Swittenberg, Naomi Hunt, Estelle Gist, Geraldine Massey and Cora Lee Smith.

Memorie will forever be cherished by her two sons: Lonnie Armstrong, Jr., of Gastonia, North Carolina and James Lester Armstrong (Barbara) of Hampton, Georgia; three grandsons: Anthony Turner (Angie), Robert Turner (Lori), Jr. and Marcus Turner, Sr. all of Gastonia, North Carolina; great grands and great great grands; her best and close friend: Sherry Hoke; her Royal best friend and companion: Eunice Barton and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends all of whom loved her dearly
