

Weep Not For Me

Weep not my loved ones for me
For it was God that came to set me free.
Just the other day, He called my name,
And very soon the angels came.
They brought the Chariot, can't you see?
Now I've got a home in the land of the free.

So why weep, mourn or cry
We will meet again sweet by and by
For down here I've done my best
Now God has a place for me
Where there's eternal rest.

Life Reflections

Cynthia Denise Buckner, 60, of Kingstown, North Carolina passed away on July 30, 2024, at Atrium Health - Cleveland with her children by her side. Cynthia was born on April 21, 1964, in Eatonton, Georgia to the late Ida Mae Cobb Buckner.

Cynthia attended Polkville Elementary School in adolescent years and graduated from Crest High School in 1983. Cynthia was a very hard-working woman who always provided for children. Her sassiness and sense of humor is something no one will forget about her. She was a people person and never met a stranger.

Cynthia leaves behind her three children: Travis Boykins of Kings Mountain, NC, Thalia Brown (Darryl) of York, SC, Aliyah Boykins of Charlotte, NC. Her siblings Thomas Buckner of San Antonio, TX and Jamette Flack (Leonard) of Shelby, NC. Her four grandchildren Johnathan Tate, Jr. of York, SC, Javell Bailey of Shelby, NC, Karter Mayfield of Charlotte, NC and Zy'Riah Miller of Shelby, NC; four great grandchildren; Jaselle Edwards, Jah Laborn, Kaysten and Kaelan Bailey, all of Shelby, NC. Her nephews Jamar Flack of Kingstown, NC, Nathaniel, Tevin, and Thomas Buckner Jr, all of San Antonio, TX. Three bonus daughters, Dykisher Logan (Corneilus) and Cherie Schenck, both of Shelby, NC, and Shakeria White Johnson (Jeremy) of Elgin, SC; and a host of nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Cynthia was preceded in death by her mother, Ida Mae Cobb Buckner and Aunt Mary Kate Cobb.

Cynthia will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her.
