

My Brother

Unknown Author

As kids, we lived together
We fought, we laughed, we cried.
We did not always show the love,
That we all had inside.
We shared our dreams and plans,
And some secrets too.
All the memories we share,
Is what bonds us now to you.
We grew to find we have a love
That is very strong today.
It's a love shared by our family
That will never fade away.
You are my brother not by choice,
But by the nature of our birth
I could not have chosen a better one
You were the best on earth.

Obituary

Mr. Peter L. Biggers of Mount Holly, North Carolina was born on May 25, 1964 in Gaston County, North Carolina to the late Willie and Thelma Biggers. He transitioned from this earthly life on Saturday; August 17, 2024. He attended and graduated from East Gaston High School in the class of 1983.

Pete, as he was affectionately called, was a hard and faithful worker from the start until the very end. He started working when he was 15 and didn't stop until he was taken away from work by his doctor at the age of 58. He worked four jobs his whole life. Everywhere he worked, he was loved and respected. The companies he worked for were Acme Spinning Company, Hertz, and Moss Supply. After being put on disability, he still wanted to go to work. He always put his all in whatever he did.

He loved bowling when he was able, and really loved himself some fishing.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Willie and Thelma Biggers and his brother: Maurice Biggers.

He leaves to cherish his memories to his son: Chris McCorkle; four brothers: Terry Biggers (Ethel), Dexter Biggers (Bashie), Steve Biggers (Chanthine) and Bobby Biggers (Robin) and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
