

Remember Me

Speak of me as you have always done,
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made,
Do not let them wither or fade.
I'll be with you in the summer's sun,
And when the winds chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze,
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.
I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared, are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days, maybe a test,
But remember me, when I am at my best.
Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while,
Comfort each other and try to smile.
I've lived a life full of joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.

Anthony Dowson

His Journey

Charles Everette Wallace was born in Gastonia, North Carolina, on January 30, 1957. He was born to Addie Elizabeth Wallace and Ferdinand Wallace Sr. Quietly, he passed away on Thursday, August 29, 2024 in Gastonia, North Carolina. Everette had a deep love for Lilly Gwendolyn Wallace, who became a second mother to him.

Everette graduated from Hunter Huss High School. He comes from a large family of 13 siblings and was one of two sets of twins in the Wallace family. His cherished twin brother, Edward Wallace, affectionately known as "Ed", preceded him in death. They derived great joy from spreading laughter.

Everette was a man of faith. Similar to his father, Everett was no stranger to hard work and enjoyed taking care of people's lawns as a skilled landscaper.

In addition to his twin, Edward Wallace, Everett is preceded in death by his maternal mother, Addie Elizabeth Wallace, and his father, Ferdinand Wallace Sr. (Pastor Lilly Gwendolyn Wallace), along with his brothers Donald Wallace (Martha), Bobby Wallace (Hazel), and Ronald Wallace. He is survived by his sisters Sarah W. Barnett, Patricia A. McKinney (John), LaDonna Hobbs (Willie), Doris Wade, and Lisa Harper, and brothers William Douglas Wallace (Sue), Ferdinand Wallace Jr. (Priscilla), and Johnny Sadler as well as numerous of nieces and nephews, other family and friends.
