

Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
And each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart.

Note of Thanks

Life Reflections

It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of sister/mother, Elizabeth Rose Johnson of Capron Virginia, Southampton County, passing on October 15, 2024 at the age of 69. She was the daughter of the late Willie and Elizabeth Johnson, born on October 18, 1954.

Elizabeth graduated from Southampton High School and transferred to Paul D. Camp Community College where she majored in business accounts. Everyone that knew her as Rose. She graduated there and decided to move to New York. She resided there for two years. Three years later Rose, moved to Connecticut. She returned home and worked in the bakery for 5-8 years.

Two years later, she moved to Atlanta, Georgia. She became a machinist until she retired after 20 years. She was a master with her hands. She would present ideas to the managers on the job and received many compliments. Job well done. She continued until she got tired. She also went to business school in Atlanta and graduated in business communicating.

Rose joined Cathedral of Faith- COGIC and gave her life to Christ. She always like challenges. She loved working with her hands and were proud of her skill set.

Her hobbies were baseball and volleyball. She loved sports, especially football and basketball, and the soap operas to pass time. She loves to shop at the mall and did little travels as well as loved eating out. She will be truly missed. She also enjoyed spending time with her niece and nephew, Shydai and Nicholas at the home.

Rose is preceded in death by her father and mother, Willie and Elizabeth Johnson and siblings, Phyllis Sturdifen and brother-in-law, George Sturdifen, Catherine Johnson, Clinton Johnson of New Jersey, Romie Johnson of Capron, Virginia, James Johnson of Portsmouth, Virginia and sister-in-law, Lavonne Johnson, Willie David Johnson Jr. of Franklin, Virginia, sister-in-law, Deborah Johnson, and Richard Johnson of Portland Oregon.

Rose leaves to cherish her memories to her one son, Curtis Johnson, Georgia; four sisters, Willie Mae, Alfreda, Mildred of Virginia and Thelma of Brookhaven, Georgia; one brother, Earl Johnson of Alpharetta, Georgia; one aunt, Mary Ellsworth of Norfolk, VA, and a host of aunts, uncle, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
