

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Note of Thanks

The family would love to extend our gratitude and appreciation for the thoughts, and prayers during this time. May God continue to bless each of you.

Her Journey

Crystal Johnson was born on September 27th, 1958, in Gaston County to the late Fred and Robena Johnson.

She transitioned on December 2nd, 2024. She is a native of Mt. Holly, North Carolina. Her work experience was in the textile industry prior to her sustaining injuries that prevented her from doing manual labor. Crystal was known for her infectious laugh, stunning smile and sassy personality. Although she was petite, her presence could always be felt by others. Everyone who met her has a story to tell. Some of her favorite hobbies were shopping, completing crossword puzzles, and dancing. She encountered many obstacles throughout her life, but she persevered and continued to march to the beat of her own drum. She will be missed dearly and forever in our hearts.

Besides her parents, Crystal was preceded in death by her son: Shannon Johnson, brothers: Bruce Nelson and Phillip Bernard Johnson, and sister: Dot Sanders.

She is survived by her daughter: Rhonda Joines, grandchildren: Madison Doaty and Khalib Eaves, sister: Priscilia Blalock, brothers: Fred Johnson, Jr. and Michael Johnson and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends who she loved dearly.
