

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go
For this is a journey that we must all take,
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Obituary

Teresa Barber Wade was born on September 25, 1960, in Gastonia, NC. She was the daughter of the late Mattie Floyd Williams. Teresa was the mother of Shanda Wade and Tiffany Williams and the grandmother of Shy'heim "Tra" Dreher, Shamiya Dreher, Azaria Hoey, and Sariyah Dreher.

Teresa was a proud 1979 graduate of Hunter Huss High School. Teresa's love of serving led her to work in several service-based jobs including a position in Food Services at Caromont Hospital for 20 years until she retired. She would later come out of retirement and return to work at her beloved Hunter Huss High School, where she worked as a member of the cafeteria staff at the time of her death.

Everyone that knew Teresa also knew she had a love for her family, her church, and the Hunter Huss Huskies, or "that blue and white" as she would often refer to it as. Teresa was a member of Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church where she served on the Choir, Food Services Ministry, and Golden Circle. Teresa was an "Auntie" to many other than her biological nieces and nephews. Teresa was known for her "colorful language" and her ability to get you straight while showing immense love. Teresa's deep love of her family and friends was shown in her consistent presence and support.

Preceding Teresa in death are brothers Luther Barber and Timothy Barber

Remaining to cherish Teresa's memory are her siblings, Larry Barber, Deborah Adams (Donald), Terry Barber (Rita), Pamela Bradley, Arnold Holland, III, Cynthia Holland, Anthony Holland and Candace Holland Dunlap and a host of Aunts, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends.
