

Miss Me, but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no tears in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – But not for long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me – But let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to your friends that we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good works,
Miss me – But let me go.

Roger Robert Hardin, Jr was born January 8, 1939 to the late Roger and Lola Webb Hardin in Gaston County, North Carolina. Sunset for Roger was January 13, 2025 at 86 years of age which was too soon.

Roger attended Highland High School in Gastonia, North Carolina. He married the love of his life, Odessa Brandon, and they had a wonderful life together and they complimented each other.

Roger had a great life from working on cars to buildings, and high-powered CB radios. He retired from Parkdale Mills after over forty years of service. He was a deacon at Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist Church, Gastonia, North Carolina. He loved the Lord and did not believe in working on the Sabbath.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother: Robert Hardin and his sisters: Hattie Burris and Evelyn Degree.

Roger leaves cherished memories to his children: Jermaine Pratt, Mildred Crawford, Corey Anderson (Kyra), Anthony Anderson and Tanya Stewart; sisters: Vera Homes, Marie Kendrick, Lola Adams, Tony Hardin, Loretta Jackson; grandchildren: Christian, Jasmine and Donya Anderson; Kendall, Makayla, Apparicious Anderson, and a great grandchild: Miya Rose and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Rest well dad, we love and promise not to make the same mistakes.
