

He Is Free

He is free like the flow of time Uninterrupted recycling the progress
Of day and night.
He is free like the rain drops when the Eyes of God fill up and he allow Them to flow because He found joy in one of his children.
He is free like molecules with No destination just flowing Whether it be through the human Anatomy or the flow of chemicals.
He is free like the waves in Our brains when were sleeping Or active they find Satisfaction in controlling your actions
But yet
He is free!

Acknowledgement

We wish to express our profound and sincere appreciation for all your acts of kindness, prayers and kind words shown during the passing of our beloved. It is through your love, prayers, and the grace of God that we find strength and comfort. My God bless and keep you all.

Life Reflections

Donni "DonDollas" Wright was born on June 3, 1986 in New York City. Donni was the second son to Donna Wright.

Donni was born and raised on the Lower East Side of Manhattan where he played ball, mainly at the Henry Street Settlement. Donni devoted fifteen years to the New York City Housing Authority.

Donni was known by so many names, depending on who you asked: DonDon, Don Wuan, D-Dub, JittaBug and most famous of them all, "Mr. Henry." Donni was known for always going out of his way for the ones he loved. Let's celebrate his homecoming and cherished memories.

Donni leaves behind his mother: Donna Wright; Dad: Reginald Swinson, his sons: Kendrick Wright and Prince Wright; his sisters: India Jones and Mariasha Williams-Wright; his brother: Shareef Valentine; his nieces and nephews: Mia and Milani Williams, Jhene Wright, Shanaaz Valentine, Damir Maxwell, Anthony "AJ" Davis, Jordan Wright and Shareef Valentine, Jr.; his cousins: Kaseem, Tracy, Jihad, Faris, Jaunice, Johnny, Kyle, Khadijah, Kwanisha, Sharonda and a host of cousins. Lastly, his favorite aunt Joyce "JO" Wright, Barbara Wright, Rosemary Barnett, and Denise Knox.
