

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go
For this is a journey that we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

Life Reflections

Ms. James Vernon Crawford was born in Gaston County, North Carolina on January 5, 1930 to the late Henry Crawford and the late Velma Harris. She entered eternal rest on Thursday; May 1, 2025 at The Ivy in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Ms. Vernon was educated in the Gaston County School System, attending Highland Elementary School and Highland High School. She was a faithful member of Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Gastonia until her health declined. She worked as a domestic worker in several different homes. Ms. Vernon loved to crochet and knit.

She was preceded in death by her mother: Velma Harris; her father: Henry Crawford; and her sister: Florie Crawford.

Memories shall forever be cherished by her nieces and nephews; especially Sherry Ann Williams and other relatives and friends

In loving Memory
