

*I thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday
And days before that too.
I think of you in silence,
I often speak your name
All I have are memories
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is a keepsake
From which I'll never part.
God has you in His arms,
I have you in my heart!*

Greatly Missed
Never Ever Forgotten*

Life Reflections

Abraham Alexander Davis, a beloved son, brother, father, and friend left this world in June 2nd of 2025, at the age of 39. Born on August 8, 1985, in Haverhill, Massachusetts, Abraham's life was a testament to the strength of family, the importance of perseverance, and the value of intelligence.

Abraham was the cherished son of Rose Sapareto and Alex Davis. From an early age, he exhibited a remarkable intellect and a keen curiosity about the world around him. His love for mechanics blossomed into a career, where he applied his technical skills and dedication to his craft. As a mechanic, he was known for his exceptional problem-solving abilities, often going above and beyond to help others with their automotive needs.

Abraham's life was not without its challenges. He was preceded in death by both of his parents and his beloved brother, Soloman Joseph Sapareto, a loss that deeply affected him.

In Dallas and Gastonia, North Carolina, where he spent his final years, Abraham's spirit shone brightly. He had a unique ability to connect with people, making friends wherever he went, and leaving a lasting impression on all who crossed his path.

Abraham is survived by his loving sister, Alexis Aurelia Davis, and his two daughters, Alexis Davis and Isabella Franklin, who will carry forward his legacy of kindness and resilience. Abraham took great pride in being a father. His children were the light of his life. Abraham also leaves behind aunts Sallie Rollinson, Mary Sapareto McCoon, Lois Sapareto Fullerton, uncle Dobe Davis, nephew Theodore Hurtado and many cousins and friends.

Though Abraham has left us far too soon, his memory will forever remain in our hearts. We remember him not only as a skilled mechanic and a man of intelligence but also as a loving father, brother and friend. His legacy will continue through the lessons he taught and the love he shared.

Rest in peace, Abraham Alexander Davis. You will be dearly missed, but your spirit will live on in the hearts of those who loved you.
