

If You Could See Me Now

*My prayers have all been answered.
I finally arrived.
The healing that had been delayed has now been realized.
No one's in a hurry.
There's no schedule to keep.
We're all enjoying Jesus, just sitting at His feet.
If you could see me now, I'm walking streets of gold.
If you could see me now, I'm standing strong and whole.
If you could see me now,
you'd know I've seen Him face to face.
If you could see me now, you'd know the pain is eased.
You wouldn't want me to ever leave this place,
If you could only see me now, my light and temporary trials
Have worked out for good,
To know it brought Him glory when I misunderstood.
Though I've had my sorrows, they can never compare.
What Jesus has in store for me, no language can share.
You wouldn't want me to ever leave this perfect place
If you could only see me now!*

Life Reflections

Priscilla Woods Mack was born August 25, 1962 in Gastonia, North Carolina to Martha J. Woods. She peacefully transitioned from this earthly life to her eternal life with the Lord on Wednesday, June 4, 2025.

She was preceded in death by her Babyboy, Gregory Mack, Jr., grandparents, Mack and Edna Hall, and brother, Albert Pete Woods.

Priscilla graduated from Ashbrook High School, class of 1981. She worked at Pizza Hut for 31 years and managed 14 of those years. Priscilla was part owner of Mot's Diner and was currently employed by Gaston County Schools. She was married to Gregory Mack for 40 years.

Priscilla was a kind and loving person with a smile and laugh that would light up a room; and if you could depend on anyone it was Priscilla, also known as Pru.

She will be deeply missed by her family members and friends.

Now that her earthly journey is complete, left to cherish her precious memories is her husband, Gregory Mack of Lowell, NC; her mother, Martha J. Woods; mother-in-law, Martha Pryor both of Gastonia, NC; sister-in-law, Michele Carter (Ronald)-Charlotte, NC; twin sister, Druscilla Hill (Howard); sisters, Jonni Love (Vincent), Mary Hemphill (Billy Joe), Judy Pagan, Lee Pagan all of Gastonia, NC; brother-in-law, Wendell Mack (Monkeia)-Rock Hill, SC; brothers, Obie Woods (Nicole), Mack Woods both of Gastonia, NC; a special niece, Natisha Hill, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
