Life Reflections

Gary Kirkpatrick was born January 2, 1960 in Washington, DC. He was reared by his grandparents, Leroy and Elizabeth Kirkpatrick in Boone, North Carolina. He entered eternal sleep at Caromont Regional Medical Center in Gastonia, North Carolina on Tuesday, June 10, 2025.

He is a graduate of Appalachian High School and was a veteran of the United States Army. He retired as a truck driver. He had a passion for fishing, traveling and being with his family.

Gary leaves cherished memories to his mother: Jerry Horton (late Keith Horton), his wife: Terry Kirkpatrick; brothers: Thomas Kirkpatrick (Odette), and Albert Felder (Caroline); sisters: Wanda Johnson, and Amanda Aston; daughter: Charlotte Smith; sons: Phillips Kirkpatrick and James Baylock (Tanya); granddaughters: LaDaisha Smith, Mahogany Nichols, and Moriah Nicholas; grandsons: Kourtland Nixon and Kameron Nixon; great granddaughter: Karmen Nixon; great grandson: Jaire Scott; fur grandson: "Fendi" and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Gary loved God, family, peace and Ruffle potato chips.

You laughed like God was in the room easy, warm, never too proud.

You noticed the good in everyday things:

A clever joke, a kind face, a slow-moving cloud.

Now heave holds your steady light,

Where peace lives on and hearts feel right.

The sky knows your name tonight, I know,

And God has saved you a front row show.

I'll carry our moments, clear as day,

Your stories, your quirks, the funny things you'd say.

Until we meet again, I'll smile for two

'cause laughing still feels like laughing with you.
