

Be Happy Recipe

When the day is deary and you're feeling sad.
Think of something cheerful to lift and make you glad.

If you're having problems; you are not alone.

Life's no bed of roses

Everyone has some

If sorrow over takes you

Pray to God above

He will not forsake you

He comforts with his love

Count your many blessings

Help someone in need

Doubt and fear will lessen

And Joy be yours indeed.

Celebrating THE LIFE & LEGACY

In Loving and joyful memory of Elaine Frances Soles Young

It is with profound sorrow that we announce the untimely passing of Elaine Frances Soles Young who left this world on Saturday, August 16, 2025. Elaine was born In Buffalo, NY to the late Alfonzo Soles and the late Sedonya Hairston on November 14, 1953.

To know Elaine was to remember her smile, voice, and witty words that would light up a room.

Elaine had an influential career in early childhood development that would span over twenty years; teaching children through song and dance.

Elaine's music career carried her to sing with the likes of the Clarke Sisters, Andre Crouch, and many more. Elaine was a true lyricist and poet that brought heavenly joy to each congregation.

Elaine was survived by her only child Qwanesha Keonna Wilson, brothers: Arthur Knox, John Hairston, Keith Avion Hairston; sister: Angel Hairston Leger. Elaine also is survived by a host of loving nieces, nephews, and cousins, and friends.

Though she has departed from this earth, her spirit lives on through her daughter and all who were blessed to know her. Her life was a testimony of God's grace, and her legacy will echo through generations.
