

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;
So He put his arms around you
and whispered,
"Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.
Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.
A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!

Note of Thanks

With deep appreciation and gratitude, we wish to express our sincere thanks for all expressions of kindness shown during the loss of our loved one. It is through your love, prayers, and the Grace of God that we find strength and comfort. May God bless each and every one of you.

Susan Gale Pagan, currently of Smyrna, GA, was born in Gaston County, NC on January 1, 1960, to Charles Pagan and the late Mary Springfellow Pagan. She departed from this earthly home on Sunday; September 7, 2025, at Atrium Health Main in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Susan was an educator of the North Carolina and Georgia School System that extended to missions in Guatemala. She was a member of Mt. Zion Restoration Church under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Rodney Freeman, where she was baptized as a little girl and later served with the youth as a Teen Leader in Sunday School and later worked as a teacher for the church. With a heart to serve God's people, Susan later became a member of Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church in Gastonia, NC under the leadership of Rev. Robert Setzer where she served on their Kitchen Committee and the children during Vacation Bible School.

Later, Susan moved to Georgia where she began to attend Faith Christian Center under the leadership of Pastor Kerrick Butler II in Austell, GA where she served on the Hospitality Team. She was also a member of the American Cancer Society assisting the organization in ensuring awareness and resources were available.

She is preceded in death by her mother: Mary Springfellow Pagan and two brothers: Dennis Pagan and Gary Pagan.

Precious memories will forever be cherished by her father: Charles Pagan of Charlotte, NC; her children: Franta Pagan, Mario Pagan (Nakellia Sumpter) both of Charlotte, NC and Brian Keith Campbell of Gastonia, NC; her brothers: Charles Pagan of Atlanta, GA, Mike Pagan of Gastonia, NC, Stan Roberts, Charles Pagan and Omar Faulk all of Charlotte, NC; her sisters: Anessia Boyd (Ronnie), Shacori Kelly both of Charlotte, NC, Angie Gunning and Sheldon Smarr of Baltimore, MD; one grandson: Nolan Clinton, special friend, Nathan Wilson, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
