

Your work is done
Your soul set free

We'll carry all you gave
Lessons time can't erase
Your heart full of laughter
Your bad dad jokes you told over and over
Your hard work
Hands of strength
That no one could compare

God now has His arms wrapped around you
Lifted you to rest
Dad, He only takes the best
Heaven has gained its own handyman now
Armed with tools and jokes in hand

Time will pass
Our tears will fall
But, MY PRETTY DADDY
How your spirit will FOREVER shine
We'll see your light with every sunrise
And feel your love in countless ways

"IF MY DADDY CANT FIX IT, NO ONE CAN"
