

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day — and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.
2 Timothy 4:7-8 NIV

Celebrating The Life And Memory Of Our Brilliant Mother

When our mother passed away,
 Her absence left its mark.
 We'll use her light to guide us
 When this journey of grief feels dark.
 The greatest gifts she gave us
 Are courage, strength, and resilience.
 We wouldn't be able to handle this pain
 If it wasn't for her brilliance.
 Each time We'd laugh, she'd laugh along.
 And when We'd cry, she'd wipe our tears.
 Each time We'd fall, she'd help us up.
 For our wins, she'd be there to cheer.
 She prepared us for the future,
 Taught us how to face our fears.
 Now the future is here, but she is gone,
 And everything seems unclear.
 She'd been with us from the start
 With constant, unwavering love.
 Though she's moved on from this world,
 I know she's watching from above.
 She would tell us to be strong now.
 And continue on.
 So We'll be sure to lead a worthwhile life
 In honor of my brilliant mother.

WE LOVE YOU MOM!!!!

Remembering Corinne Hill

Corinne Thompson Hill was born on August 16, 1948 in Elizabeth, NJ, and died Friday, October 24, 2025 in Gastonia, NC. She was the daughter of Lurlene and JC Hamilton and sister to James Edward Hamilton.

Corinne worked as a nurse and enjoyed raising her family of five. She loved sharing and was very resourceful when needing guidance and very caring when needing a shoulder to cry on or just someone to talk to.

She will leave precious memories to her husband: Clifford Hill of Gastonia NC; her two daughters: Lynette and Candy Thompson of NJ; her three sons: Edward, James and Sharod Thompson of NJ; her daughter-in-law: Amy Ingram Thompson wife of Sharod Thompson of NJ; her nieces: Tasha Porter and Laniyah Thompson of VA; her step children: Tawana Michelle Hill, Shalisa Shontea Hill, Clifford Antonio Hill and Nakira Hill of NC/GA; her aunt Rudene Alston of NC; and many grand and great grandchildren who will miss her dearly along with other relatives and friends.
