A LOVING TRIBUTE

Born to grace this world with love,
Through trials early, strength she proved.
Raised by faith and caring hands,
Her life became God's gentle plan.

With open doors and a welcoming smile,
She fed both hearts and souls awhile.
Sweet pies, kind words, a servant's way—
She lived her faith each passing day.

Though called home, her love remains,
In generations bearing her name.
Well done, dear soul, now rest in peace,
Your work on earth has found release.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Mamie L. Boyd was born on May 20, 1927, in York County, South Carolina, to the late Jason Lawrence and Mable Watson of Clover, South Carolina. Following the early passing of her parents, Mamie was lovingly raised by her grandfather, Walter Watson, and Mary Neely, who instilled in her a strong foundation rooted in love, strength, and faith.

Affectionately known to all as “Ms. Mamie,” she lived a life marked by grace, resilience, and service to others. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Lefell Boyd; her daughters, Brenda B. Sanders and Verona “Bunt” B. McCullough; three grandchildren, Sherrill Boyd Leonard, Tanya B. Williams, and Torris Boyd; and her brothers, John Brown and Bob Brown.

Ms. Mamie was a devoted and hardworking woman who spent many years employed at Phar Yarns Textile in McAdenville, North Carolina. Her faith journey began in childhood at Jerusalem Baptist Church. She later became a faithful member of Friendly Hill Baptist Church for many years and eventually joined Miracle Temple Church of God, where she remained a devoted member until her passing.

She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving daughters, Patricia Patterson, Mary Boyd, and Linda Boyd of Gastonia, North Carolina; her son, Harry Boyd (Lena) of Charlotte, North Carolina; and her sister, Ruthie Mae Sherer of South Carolina. Ms. Mamie was also blessed with a large and loving family that includes twelve grandchildren, twenty-one great-grandchildren, and eight great-great-grandchildren. She is further survived by her special nieces, JohnieMae Brown and Mamie Brown, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Ms. Mamie will forever be remembered for her infectious smile, her compassion for visiting the sick, her famous sweet potato pies and stickies, and, above all, her unmatched hospitality. Her home—and her heart—were always open, and her legacy of love will continue to live on through the many lives she touched.
