A LIFE WELL LIVED A LEGACY Remembered

Dear Aunt Rebecca

My heart is heavy, and my eyes are filled with tears. I don't know how my tomorrow can begin without you, I want to scream, yet I also want to shout joy and peace knowing you are free from this old world. The day started without you, and I looked around, then looked up to heaven. I try to be strong. Your wings were ready, but my heart was not.

Auntie, we spent so much time together. You always kept a sweet spirit. You told me to always talk to Jesus the same way I talked to you--and then trust Him. I told you how Jesus had favor on your life. I would ask if you were alright, and you always answered yes.

We look so many pictures, laughed, cried, and praised God together. Now you want to know how Tarsha, Ronnie, and your baby boy Marcus are doing. Auntie, they have peace and joy knowing you are resting with the Lord. You would say, "My children."

Jesus prepared me for how it would be when you left for your heavenly home. I didn't understand then, but now I do. I will always remember you in a happy way —my rock, my energizer bunny. You never gave up. You always answered when I called.

When my angel Ruby came to let you know your time was near, you told her you were waiting. Then your angel came and whispered in your ear, "Rebecca Ann Lomick." You answered, "I am ready. This body is tired, and my soul needs rest."

So now I must let you go until we meet again. I love you to the moon and back.

Love always, Your niece, Nikki Johnson
