

Through Memories

the one we love live in our Hearts Forever

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

2 Timothy 4:7

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,
In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the
same,
But as God call us one by one, the chain will link again.

THE LIFE & LEGACY

Mae Frank Carter Farmer

Mae Frank Carter Farmer, 82, of Dallas, North Carolina, was born on September 10, 1943, in York County, South Carolina, to the late Isaac Carter Sr. and Alma Crosby Carter. She departed this life on Thursday, April 16, 2026, at CaroMont Regional Medical Center in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Mae Frank was a proud graduate of Lincoln High School, where she was a member of the Choral Club. She dedicated more than 45 years of service as an inspector at Sherman Textiles in Dallas, North Carolina. She was a faithful member of First Baptist Church in Dallas, North Carolina.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Isaac Carter Jr., and her sister, Bernice Froneberger.

She leaves to cherish her memory to her children, Marcus A. Carter and Lisa Savage (Joe). She was a devoted grandmother to seven grandchildren: Ashleigh, Anthony, Jeremy, Jaleesa, Dominique, Jasmine, and Keedon, and a proud great-grandmother to twenty-four great-grandchildren.

She is also survived by her sisters: Marjorie Moses of Dallas; Tarbie Nixon (Jerry) of Denver, North Carolina; Audrey Hall (Clinton) of Gastonia, North Carolina; and Vera Floyd (Bobby) of Stanley, North Carolina; and her brothers: Don Carter (Diane) of Gastonia, North Carolina, and Roy Carter (Carolyn) of Dallas, North Carolina.

Mae Frank will be remembered for her lively personality, quartet music, infectious laughter, and her love of seafood and "Sweet Frog" frozen yogurt. She deeply loved her family.
