Recessional

"DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP"

By Elizabeth Frye

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen."

Scripture: Matthew 22:37

"You Shall love the Lord your God with all you heart, with all your soul and with all you mind". This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself...

LIFE REFLECTION

Betty Lou McClure, 80, entered into eternal rest on Monday, July 6, 2026. She went peacefully surrounded by her loved ones.

Betty was born in York, S.C., on September 29, 1945, to William Pressley, Sr. and Ella Pressley Sadler. She devoted her life to the Lord, her family, and friends. She was warm and kind to everyone that she met. As the old saying goes, she never met a stranger. Betty was a member of New Beginnings Christian Fellowship of Clover, S.C. where she worshipped the Lord in joyful freedom.

Betty was a stunningly beautiful woman inside and out who had so much passion, humility, grace, and resilience. She had a nurturing spirit, and provided unwavering support to anyone who needed her. She also instilled in her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren a legacy of kindness, resilience, and love for others. You can see her love, her exuberant light (a beautiful reflection of God), her resilience, her laughter, her joy, her smile, and all of her other amazing gifts in each and every one of them.

Mama loved the Word of God, gardening, watching Family Feud and being in the presence of her family.

She leaves to cherish her memory her husband Thomas McClure, Sr.; her daughters: Ramona McClure, Valerie McClure-Scott (Mike), Latonia Graham (Troy), Betty M. McClure, Tameka Taylor (Daniel), and her son Thomas McClure, Jr.; 16 Grandchildren; and 16 Great-Grandchildren. She will also be deeply missed by her Sisters: Lillie Baxter, Ferry Aiken (Paul Aiken, dec.), Lessie Jackson (Andrew Jackson, dec.), Elizabeth Maynard (Thomas Maynard, dec.), Sarah Moss (Robert Moss, dec.), and Brother Ricky McCarroll, as well as a host of family and friends.

As she would always say to remind you of why we were put on this Earth which is to "Love God and Love One Another."
