"A letter home"

"Charlotte Ann"

Don't be mad because I've gone on.
I had to join mama it was my time to go home.
bingo was at the gate,
he said "duck" come on and I told him to slow down my body not that strong. he said "duck" you in the past, that body gone.
once you past through them gates your spirit made it home.
when I look down in the water my refleection was all wrong.
it was 20 years old version me
I was staring at a clone.
see my old building had a leak and some doors were loose,
windows was broke and a damaged roof.
now, I'm in a castle I'm feeling brand new
and the words on my welcome mat reads demon proof.
So family don't cry over me because I'm praying over you.
I went ahead through the wilderness so I can watch over you...

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Lemar Glenn, lovingly known as “Duck” was born on August 11, 1968, at Gaston Memorial Hospital in Gastonia, North Carolina to the late Margie Glenn Smith and Charles Currence. Lemar peacefully entered eternal rest on Monday July 13, 2026, at his home.

He was educated in Gaston County Schools and attended Hunter Huss High School. He possessed a strong aptitude for general labor and hands on work. He carried himself with a deep appreciation for cleanliness and tidiness.

Lemar developed a strong foundation of Faith at Boyd Friendship Baptist Church. He actively participated in the Youth choir, revivals and other church activities. He loved receiving those butter cookies and red punch in VBS.

His warmth and humor will FOREVER be remembered by all who were blessed to know him. His spirit will live on in the hearts of those who he Loved.

He was preceded in death by his loving mother Margie Glenn Smith and father Charles Currence.

He leaves his fond memories to be cherished by his Beloved sister Charlotte Weathers who later became his caregiver of Gastonia, NC; Sisters: Shannon Roseboro, Tammy Sherer (Cory), Charlene Currence, Denise Currence, Wanda Currence (Keith), Chelsea Currence and Jessica Currence. Brothers: Charles Mitchell, Breech Rosenboro (Margaret), Vince Garvin, Gabriel Currence, Yakotus Currence, Justin Currence and Chris Currence (Latifah). 3 Children: Martino Brice of Gastonia, NC, LaQuaya Glenn of Harrisburg, PA and Amir Glenn of Phoenix, Arizona; eight Grandchildren: Maleek Brice, Maleeyah Brice, Martino Brice Jr., Rhema Brice, Za’layah Brice, Kwannea Glenn, Quinton Barber and Amira Glenn. three Aunts: Gloria Glenn, Marjorie Hope and Diane Mitchell; three Uncles: Ronnie Currence, Michael Currence and Timothy Currence. A special cousin Anthony “JuneBug” Adams and special friends: Desmond Ratchford aka BayBay, Debbie Goforth and Deloris Leach and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
