Well Done
My Good and Faithful Servant
MATTHEW 25:23

I have dreaded this day but now that we are here, this is what I have to say, "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord" and a soul like yours has been a great honor to encounter; however, it was just too precious to keep you here with us on Earth, so the Lord had to call you home. Your kind words of advice and affirmations will forever live on and I will forever carry with me the sound of your voice, and the many memories we are left to cherish shall never perish.

To know you is to love you and I'm sure you've etched your name in many hearts as you have done mine. My last few words to you were to "Stay strong, the fight ain't over yet" and you replied, "Oh I am and I'm a big fighter for God. And I still have faith the size of a mustard seed." You fought so hard for so long, if you knew nothing else you knew God was capable of all things and that you were going to be alright.

As I sit here writing this, I can hear your voice saying, "Honey don't cry for me but rejoice and be happy that I am at peace." I am overjoyed that you have found perfect peace and eternal life with God, your King. This isn't a farewell but a see you later, job well done. Soar high in those heavenly skies and may you take your final rest in paradise.
