We watched you softly slip away
We tried so hard to make you stay
But God was watching from above
And called you home to show His love.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful and free from pain
How could we wish you back
With us to suffer that again?

Now we praise God for letting us have you
For the times you brightened our days
Then for the joy of laughter and living.
Yes, for the warmth and your loving ways.

Life Reflections

Ms. Callie Mae Berry Reid was born on May 14, 1930, to the late Addie R. Berry and Sandy Berry. She departed this life on October 27, 2026, peacefully surrounded by her family and friends.

Callie was a dedicated and hardworking woman who was employed with Wix for 29 years. She also worked with Gaston County Schools. She was a faithful member of Liberty Hill A.M.E. Zion Church in York, South Carolina, where she was a cherished part of the church family.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Margaret Berry Crockett, and her great-grandson, Jerard A. Reid Jr.

Callie leaves to cherish her precious memories her daughter, Carolyn Green; her son, Robert Reid; her sisters, Violet Berry and Peggy Thomas; and her sister-in-law, Margaret Myers, all of Gastonia, North Carolina. She also leaves to cherish her memory her nieces and nephews, Joan Fair, Diane Berry, Sammy Berry, Teresa Hester, and Wayne Berry (Shirley Berry); and her grand-nieces, Akisha Berry and Monique Moore. Her loving memory will also be cherished by her grandchildren, Callrina Reid, Jerard Reid, Felicia Berry, and Shameka Phillips; and her great-grandchildren, Jenira Reid, Kiree Reid, Jayscion Reid, Jahya Reid, Legacy Reid, Skimeria Reid, and Jamiracle Reid.

Ms. Callie M. Berry Reid will be lovingly remembered for the life she lived, the love she shared, and the precious memories she leaves behind. Her presence will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
