Scars in Heaven

The only scars in heaven,
They won't belong to me and you,
There will be no such thing as broken,
And all the old will be made new,
And the thought that made me smile now,
Even as the tears fall down.
Is that the only scars in heaven,
Are on the hands that hold you now

Acknowledgements

The family of Mary C. Hawkins would like to thank Pastor Houston and the First Baptist Church for your services. Thank you to everyone who prayed with us, brought us food, drinks, etc., called, or stopped by to visit. Continue to pray for us as we adjust to life on this side without our mom, our sister, our grandmother, our aunt, and our friend, also A special thank you to Larry Talbert, Steve Vinegar, Tony Lewis, and Harry Wilson for the special love they showed our mom”

Obituary

On Wednesday, October 11, 2023, God whispered softly to his soldier Mary Catherine Hawkins, “Fight no more, your work here is done.”

Mary was the widow of James M. Hawkins Mary was born June 20, 1937 to the late Nina and Matthew Williams in Georgetown, Kentucky, the oldest of 11 children.

Mary was a faithful servant of God and a devoted member of First Baptist Church for 60 plus years, until her health began to decline.

She served as superintendent of Sunday school, she was a Sunday school teacher, she was active in the Consolidated Baptist Institute, a member of the Women's Missionary Circle, and served on the Culinary Committee, to name a few of her ministries.

Mary was a childcare provider and a foster mom for many years. She operated her daycare out of her home (Cappa Elementary), She could be seen sitting on her porch surrounded by children.

She nurtured and cared for her grandchildren along with many other children in Georgetown. Mary loved her kids. Her door was always open and she was always ready to lend a hand to anyone who needed it. She was a soft spoken woman that carried a big stick. Mary was a pillar in the community, she will be sorely missed.

The matriarch leads to cherish her memories: Children, Emma Boggs, Gloria Reynolds, Michael Hawkins, Marilyn Wilson, Darlene Bland, Keith (Bobbi) Hawkins, and Angela Hawkins. Siblings, Flora (Cookie) Smithers, Doris (Gregory) Duckworth, Ronald (Beverly) Williams, Inez Raglin, Anthony Williams and Cheryl (Stewart) McIntyre.

Mary leaves 38 grandchildren, 19 great grandchildren, and 3 great-great grandchildren. Sister in-laws Mary McIntyre, Maggie Hawkins, and Barbara Lewis, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
