

I'm Safe Here

#LLL14

I had a long conversation with God, he said to me, "I have always been right by your side, even when you couldn't see me. Close and always near, my sweet Angel please have no fear."

So, Mom and Dad, please do not worry I am safe here.

No pain, no worries, no clouds in the sky, not even snow flurries. Only sunshine, joy, love, and peace, even the air here smells so sweet.

Can you believe everyone already knows my name? They said, "Because we are all Angels." Then, whispered and said, it is also because "We watched all of your games."

My great-grandmas are here, and my granddads too. Dad, I can't believe how much grandpa looks just like you. He said he was cheering for me at all my games, screaming at the top of his lungs and yelling my name. He also wants you to know he is so very proud of you, keep your head held high, even when you are feeling blue. Please do not worry; I am safe here.

I love you so much, and I know you love me too. Please do not be hard on yourself, there is no one to blame, and this I hold true. My journey here was done, I am now an Angel always watching over each of you.

God told me we will all be together again, because in Heaven there is no such thing as never, only forever. We must continue to trust and believe in him and get through this together.

There is no need to worry; I am safe here

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Lamont Stephenson Shearer would like to thank everyone for their continued support and kind words. The genuineness and love of everyone who sent a card, sent flowers, made a phone call, or shared a favorite memory describing the impact Lamont had and has in their lives is truly appreciated, and most definitely will never go unnoticed. Lamont was truly a blessing to have, and our family would like to ensure everyone who played any part in developing him into the terrific young man we all knew and loved, is truly appreciated and will never be forgotten. May God continue to bless you.

OBITUARY

Lamont Stevenson Shearer, 14, was welcomed on this earth in Richmond, Kentucky, on December 5, 2009, to a loving and supportive family.

He became interested in sports at the early age of five. He not only enjoyed the act and art of playing football, t-ball, and running track, but the hard work and dedication that was associated with it.

Taking on the role of an exceptional student athlete is one Lamont exhibited throughout his middle school career. He demonstrated this excellence by maintaining a 3.5 GPA or higher throughout his entire middle school career.

Although Lamont's amazing performance in the classroom and on the field was above average, his greatest gift from God was his amazing smile and outstanding positive personality.

Never complaining about anything, being selfless, loyal, having integrity, treating everyone he met with kindness, never holding a grudge, or judging anyone, are just a few of the qualities that allowed him to be such a blessing to be around.

He valued his family and friends, guaranteeing his behavior always reflected that. Lamont overachieved in accepting his role as a son, grandson, brother, cousin, friend, and wonderful productive member of his community.

He truly encompassed the Lord's wishes for all his children to be consistent.

To say he will truly be missed is an understatement.

Lamont's parents would be honored by everyone remembering the good times they had with him, his exuded selflessness, and his loving and kind heart. He'll be remembered in the greatest light possible always. He is survived by his parents, Courtney Shearer, Shalynn Bruck, and Jennifer Sweeney. In addition to his parents, Lamont is survived by his brothers Ezekiel, Jeremiah, and Damion; sisters, A'Layla and Allana; grandmothers, Tracy Cantrell and Laurie Bruck; aunts and uncles, Kristy (Ericka), Lassika, Danisha, Darshae, Daiyaan, Darrell, Devon, and Dustin; and a host of loving family members that will cherish him forever.

Gone But Never Forgotten

#LLL14

Don't think of Lamont as gone away;

His journey's just begun.

Life holds so many facets,

This earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting

From the sorrows and the tears

In a place of warmth and comfort

Where there are no days and years.

Think how Lamont must be wishing

That we could know today.

How nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of Lamont as living,

In the hearts of those he touched.

For nothing loved is ever lost,

And Lamont was loved so much!
