

Love

Love means to learn to look at yourself

The way one looks at distant things;

You are only one thing among many,

And whoever sees that way heals his heart

Without knowing it from various ills.

A bird and a tree say to him: Friend.

Then, he wants to use himself and things

So that they stand in the glow of ripeness.

It doesn't matter whether he knows what he serves;

Who serves best doesn't always understand.

Obituary

Evelyn Ann Hampton loved, cared for, and “worried” about many people, but she especially loved her family. She showed her love by cooking, which she did very well. Her laughter was infectious.

Evelyn was born in Hazard, Kentucky, on June 6, 1950, to the late Flora and Aden Gipson. She was preceded in death by her husband, William L. Hampton; sisters, Josephine and Audra; and brothers, Clarence, David, and Troy.

Survivors include: son, Anthony Hampton; daughter, Kezia (Daniel) Israel; sisters, Thelma Patton and Janice Thomas; brothers, Cleve, Nathaniel, and Russell Gipson; granddaughters, Rebekah Israel, Dinah Israel, and Abrasha; grandsons, Joshua Israel and Elijah Israel; great-granddaughters, Loyalty, Eliana, Carmella, Abigail, and Genesis; great-grandsons, Isaiah, Hananiah, and Zephaniah; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
