Olbe Day Fool Olook Ofour Come

You never said, "I'm leaving,"

You never said, "Good-bye."

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knew why.

A million times I needed you;

A million times I cried.

If love alone could have saved you,

You never would have died.

In life, I loved you dearly;

In death, I love you still.

In my heart, you hold a place

That no one could ever fill.

It broke my heart to lose you,

But you didn't go alone.

Part of me went with you

The day God took you home.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of the late Janie Ann Godfrey wishes to acknowledge, with deep appreciation, to Greater Liberty Baptist Church, Elder Marcus D. Underwood, Sr., and all the many expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to us during our hour of bereavement. We, the family, are blessed by your thoughtfulness, whether you whispered a prayer, brought a dish, gave a hug, shed a tear, made a telephone call, gave a love gift, stopped by to share in our grief, or if you are attending today. Thank you, and may God bless you all.

Janie Ann Godfrey, a native of Lexington, Kentucky, age 61, passed away on Sunday, September 8, 2024, at the University of Kentucky Medical Center with her family by her side. She was born on July 5, 1963, to the late Frederick and Gladys Godfrey. Besides her parents, she was proceeded in death by two brothers, James Freeman and Alfred Godfrey.

Left to cherish her life and memory are: her eight children, Corey Godfrey, Carlos (Tori) Godfrey, Michael Irvin, Jr., Justin (Ditraceyia) Irvin, Sr., Andrea Irvin, Tamara (Timetrius) Irvin, Jermale Edwards, and Etasia Godfrey; sisters, Joyce Robinson, Missy Godfrey, and Tonie Godfrey; brother, Robert Godfrey; thirteen grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends who were special to her.

She devoted her life to her children and grandchildren. Janie took pride in her work, cooking, spending time with her family, and touching lives of others. One of her joys was cooking soul food dinners to bring her family together. She loved making memories, especially on holidays, and taught her children the importance of family and keeping family traditions. Janie loved to dance, had a contagious smile, and the ability to make others laugh. Her heart felt hugs and strong determination gave loved ones comfort and reassurance that everything would be okay.

Janie was a member of Greater Liberty Baptist Church and had a dedicated relationship with God. She previously worked at the University of Kentucky for ten years and Saint Joseph Hospital for seven years and was most recently employed by Fayette County Public Schools, where she planned to retire.
