Obituary

On Tuesday, December 10, 2024, the Lord called home his child, Johanna Marie Thompson. She was born to the late John G. Johnson, Sr., and Betty Jean McIntyre on May 2, 1955, in Georgetown, Kentucky. Johanna was a hard worker and provider until her health failed her. She loved her family and friends unconditionally and loved her church and church family dearly.

Johanna was a faithful and dedicated member of First African Baptist Church, Lexington, where she was the Sunday School teacher of the Beginners Class. She was a member of the Senior Adult Ministry and the Women’s Bible Study Group (JEWELS). Johanna was a graduate of Georgetown High School, and she attended Kentucky State University. She loved cooking, sewing, crafts, and taking care of her plants. She was a hard worker employed by Clark Equipment, Standard Products, ATS, and Cypress Community, as a Caregiver.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her husband and soulmate of over 29 years, Stephon Thompson; survivors include two children, Sherrelle L. Johnson and Manzer Q. Stevenson; grandchildren, Ciera (Michael) McDaniel, Kadence Johnson, and Shyon Williams; great-granddaughter, Harmonie Maxwell; siblings, John G. Johnson, Jr., and Betty (Antonio) Christopher; Johanna is also survived by an uncle, Landy (Aarion) Shores, and aunt, Fannie Johnson; Johanna is also survived by her mother-in-law, Martha Thompson; brothers-in-law, James Earl (Misha) Thompson and Jonathon (April) Thompson; and she is also survived by nephews, nieces, cousins, and special friends.

Aside from her parents, she was preceded in death by her one nephew, Darron K. Wilson II.

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be;
So He put his arms around you and whispered, “Come with me.”
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away.
Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!
