Acknowledgement

The family of the late Bernice E. Campbell wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern, and kindness shown to them during their hour of bereavement. We are blessed by your thoughtfulness, whether you whispered a prayer, brought a dish, gave a hug, shed a tear, made a telephone call, gave a love gift, stopped by to share in our grief or if you are attending today. Thank you to each one of you. May God bless you all.

*"We expect and you deserve the best.
Anything less is unacceptable."*

*The Day God
Took You Home*

You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.

Obituary

Bernice E. Harris Campbell was born on June 7, 1939, in Peytontown, Kentucky to the late Helen G. Harris and John D. Harris. Bernice joined Peytontown Baptist Church at an early age, and she was an active member until her death. As a member of Peytontown, Bernice played the piano, served as church secretary and was recognized as the Mother of the Church. She was also a missionary of the Mt. Pleasant District.

Bernice retired from Eastern Kentucky University where she served 32 years as a custodian. She enjoyed playing cards, socializing with family and friends, and was known for her yellow cake with caramel icing.

In addition to her parents, Bernice was preceded in death by two sons, Gregory Harris and Kenneth Harris. Also preceding were her siblings, Virgil Harris, William Harris, Paul Harris, Donnie Harris, Earl Harris, Lorraine Harris, Clara Gentry, Helen Smith, and four other siblings that died in infancy. Bernice was also preceded by a host of nieces and nephews who she cherished dearly.

Bernice is survived by two dedicated sons, Larry (Mary) Harris and Randall (Connie) Campbell; and a grandson she raised, Jay Campbell. Other grandchildren are Torre Clay, Darnell Clay, Jessica Bello, and Keyshawn Simpson; surviving great-grandchildren are Jamieson Clay, Charquan Green, Jayleah Peeples, Jazsmin Peeples, and three step-grandchildren, Destoni Stone, Aaron Stone, and Kyla Stone; a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends also survive. Also left to cherish memories of Bernice are two special nieces, who are more like sisters to her, Emma Mitchell and Dorothy Campbell.

“He said to her, Daughter your faith has healed you.
Go in peace and be freed from your suffering.”
Mark 5:34
