OBITUARY

Sallie Mae Warren Chenault was born in Madison County on February 6, 1949, to the late George Wesley Warren and Mary Clay. Sallie loved her family dearly, and she enjoyed cooking, especially on holidays. Sallie enjoyed shopping, and she also loved to travel.

Sallie was married to Albert Chenault, Jr., who preceded her in death. During their many years of marriage, they enjoyed raising the grandchildren together and served in the church for over thirty years. Together, they traveled to many places, attending various engagements and parties.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughter and son, Karen and Albert Christopher (Dawn) Chenault; niece whom she loved like a daughter, Rhonda (Marcus); nephew whom she loved like a son, Roger Warren. She will be very much missed by her grandchildren, Emprince (Shamitra), Princess (Vincent), Karen (Marion) Woolfolk, Carenton, Antonio, Phillip, Alsheena, Tionna, Shawn, Dominique, and Albert Christopher; great-grandchildren, My'Kel, Ja'ontay, Tra'Prince, Legaci, Heaven, Chosyn, Madison, Milani, Tyeisha, La'riah, Malaysia, Jocelyn, and DJ. Also left to honor her memory are her sisters, Mary Agnes Sweat and Olivia Warren; special friends, Ms. Laura, Anna, and Malissa; and she is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Sallie was preceded in death by her daughter, Betty; brothers, George and Merritt Warren; and she will also be united in heaven with her special aunt, Sallie B. Warren.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys:
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss.
Oh, yes, these things I, too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow;
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full; I savored much:
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your heart, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now—He has set me free.*

THE DAY God TOOK YOU HOME

*You never said, "I'm leaving."
You never said, "Good-bye."
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.
A million times I needed you;
A million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
In life, I loved you dearly;
In death, I love you still.
In my heart, you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of me went with you
The day God took you home.*
